AUSCHWITZ WILL BE SHOWN AT 12:30pm ON JUNE 6, 13, AND 27TH

Inside the Nazi State is the result of three years of research, drawing on the close involvement of the world experts, recently discovered documents and nearly 100 interviews with camp survivor and perpetrators, many of whom are speaking on the record for the first time. Their stories are brought to life through the innovative use of archive footage, dramatic recreations of key decision-making moments, and their extraordinary testimony. While never losing the sights of the suffering of the victims, this documentary offers a unique and alarming look at the mindset of the perpetrators—killers like the Commandant of Auschwitz Rudolf Hoss, camp doctor Josef Mengele, and S.S. Commander Heinrich Himmler. BBC Presentation

This six-part series presents an in-depth examination of the camp's revolution and the decisions that enabled such an incomprehensibly inhuman place to come into being. Recommended by Val, who uses it in her Ethics Class.
